

Our Lady of the Assumption Walking with Purpose Bible Study Invites All Parishioners and Friends to

2021 Advent Evening of Reflection

Advent Hope: The Invitation within Uncertainty

"No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love him." (1 Cor 2:9)

As we approach the holidays, let's set aside our To Do Lists and reprioritize our decisions, responsibilities and activities with a clearer focus on our faith.

Please join us for an evening of discussion, prayer and reflection providing us the opportunity to explore, reset and truly enjoy and appreciate the gift of this season.

Wednesday December 1st, 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Virtual Presentation and Discussion via Zoom

We are happy to welcome our featured speaker, Sister Jessica Kerber, ACJ, a Handmaid of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, an international congregation of religious women with Ignatian Spirituality and a particular Eucharistic charism. Educated in philosophy and theology studies at the Jesuit Pontifical University in Madrid, with additional instruction on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius and spiritual direction, she currently teaches theology at SLU. Sister Jessica finds great joy and grace in accompanying others in their faith journey, as God is further revealed in the life experience of another. She also plays the violin.

Please Register by Monday November 29th ONLINE, mail in or drop in the collection basket.
